

Australian Therapeutic Landscapes Conference

ADELAIDE 2017

Friday 13th October

Back to Green 2017

REGISTRATIONS NOW OPEN

So much of what the eye is constructed to see falls within the wavelength of the colour green. Back to Green 2017 explores the therapeutic benefits of nature and green spaces and how they affect our physical emotional responses to the world around us.

Anyone who has felt wellness descend in a therapeutic landscape will find many seeds of explanation at this thought provoking conference.

Why Attend?

Join fellow passionate delegates as Back to Green 2017 features informative speakers, hands-on workshops, garden tours, displays, refreshments, door prizes and most importantly networking. This event is a must-do for anyone involved in health, education, community services, horticultural therapy, therapeutic garden design or research. REGISTER HERE

Why Present?

Presenting at Back to Green 2017 is a powerful way to gain recognition for your expertise among fellow HT leaders, practitioners, professionals, students and emerging stars of the field.
